The First
YEARBOOK
of
JOHN F. KENNEDY MEMORIAL
HIGH SCHOOL
PROFILES

Courage has been needed throughout our history and is still needed now. Our power as the Youth of today will be in proportion to our true courage.

President Kennedy not only wrote about courage in his book, "Profiles In Courage," he illustrated it for us in his own life. We are proud to have part of the title of his book as the name of our Yearbook.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

January 20, 1961

Mr. Chief Justice, President Eisenhower, Vice President Nixon, President Truman, reverend clergy, fellow citizens, we observe today not a victory of party, but a celebration of freedom—symbolizing an end, as well as a beginning—signifying renewal, as well as change. For I have sworn before you and Almighty God the same solemn oath our forebears prescribed nearly a century and three quarters ago.

The world is very different now. For man holds in his mortal hands the power to abolish all forms of human poverty and all forms of human life. And yet the same revolutionary beliefs for which our forebears fought are still at issue around the globe—the belief that the rights of man come not from the generosity of the state, but from the hand of God.

We dare not forget today that we are the heirs of that first revolution. Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans—born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage—and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this Nation has always been committed, and to which we are committed today at home and around the world. . . .

Let every nation know, whether it wishes us well or ill, that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe, in order to assure the survival and the success of liberty.

This much we pledge—and more. . . .

So let us begin anew—remembering on both sides that civility is not a sign of weakness, and sincerity is always subject to proof. Let us never negotiate out of fear. But let us never fear to negotiate.

Let both sides explore what problems unite us instead of laboring those problems which divide us. . . .

Let both sides seek to invoke the wonders of science instead of its terrors. Together let us explore the stars, conquer the deserts, eradicate disease, tap the ocean depths, and encourage the arts and commerce.

Let both sides unite to heed in all corners of the earth the command of Isaiah—to "undo the heavy burdens and to let the oppressed go free." . . .

In your hands, my fellow citizens, more than in mine, will rest the final success or failure of our course. Since this country was founded, each generation of Americans has been summoned to give testimony to its national loyalty. The graves of young Americans who answered the call to service are found around the globe. . . .

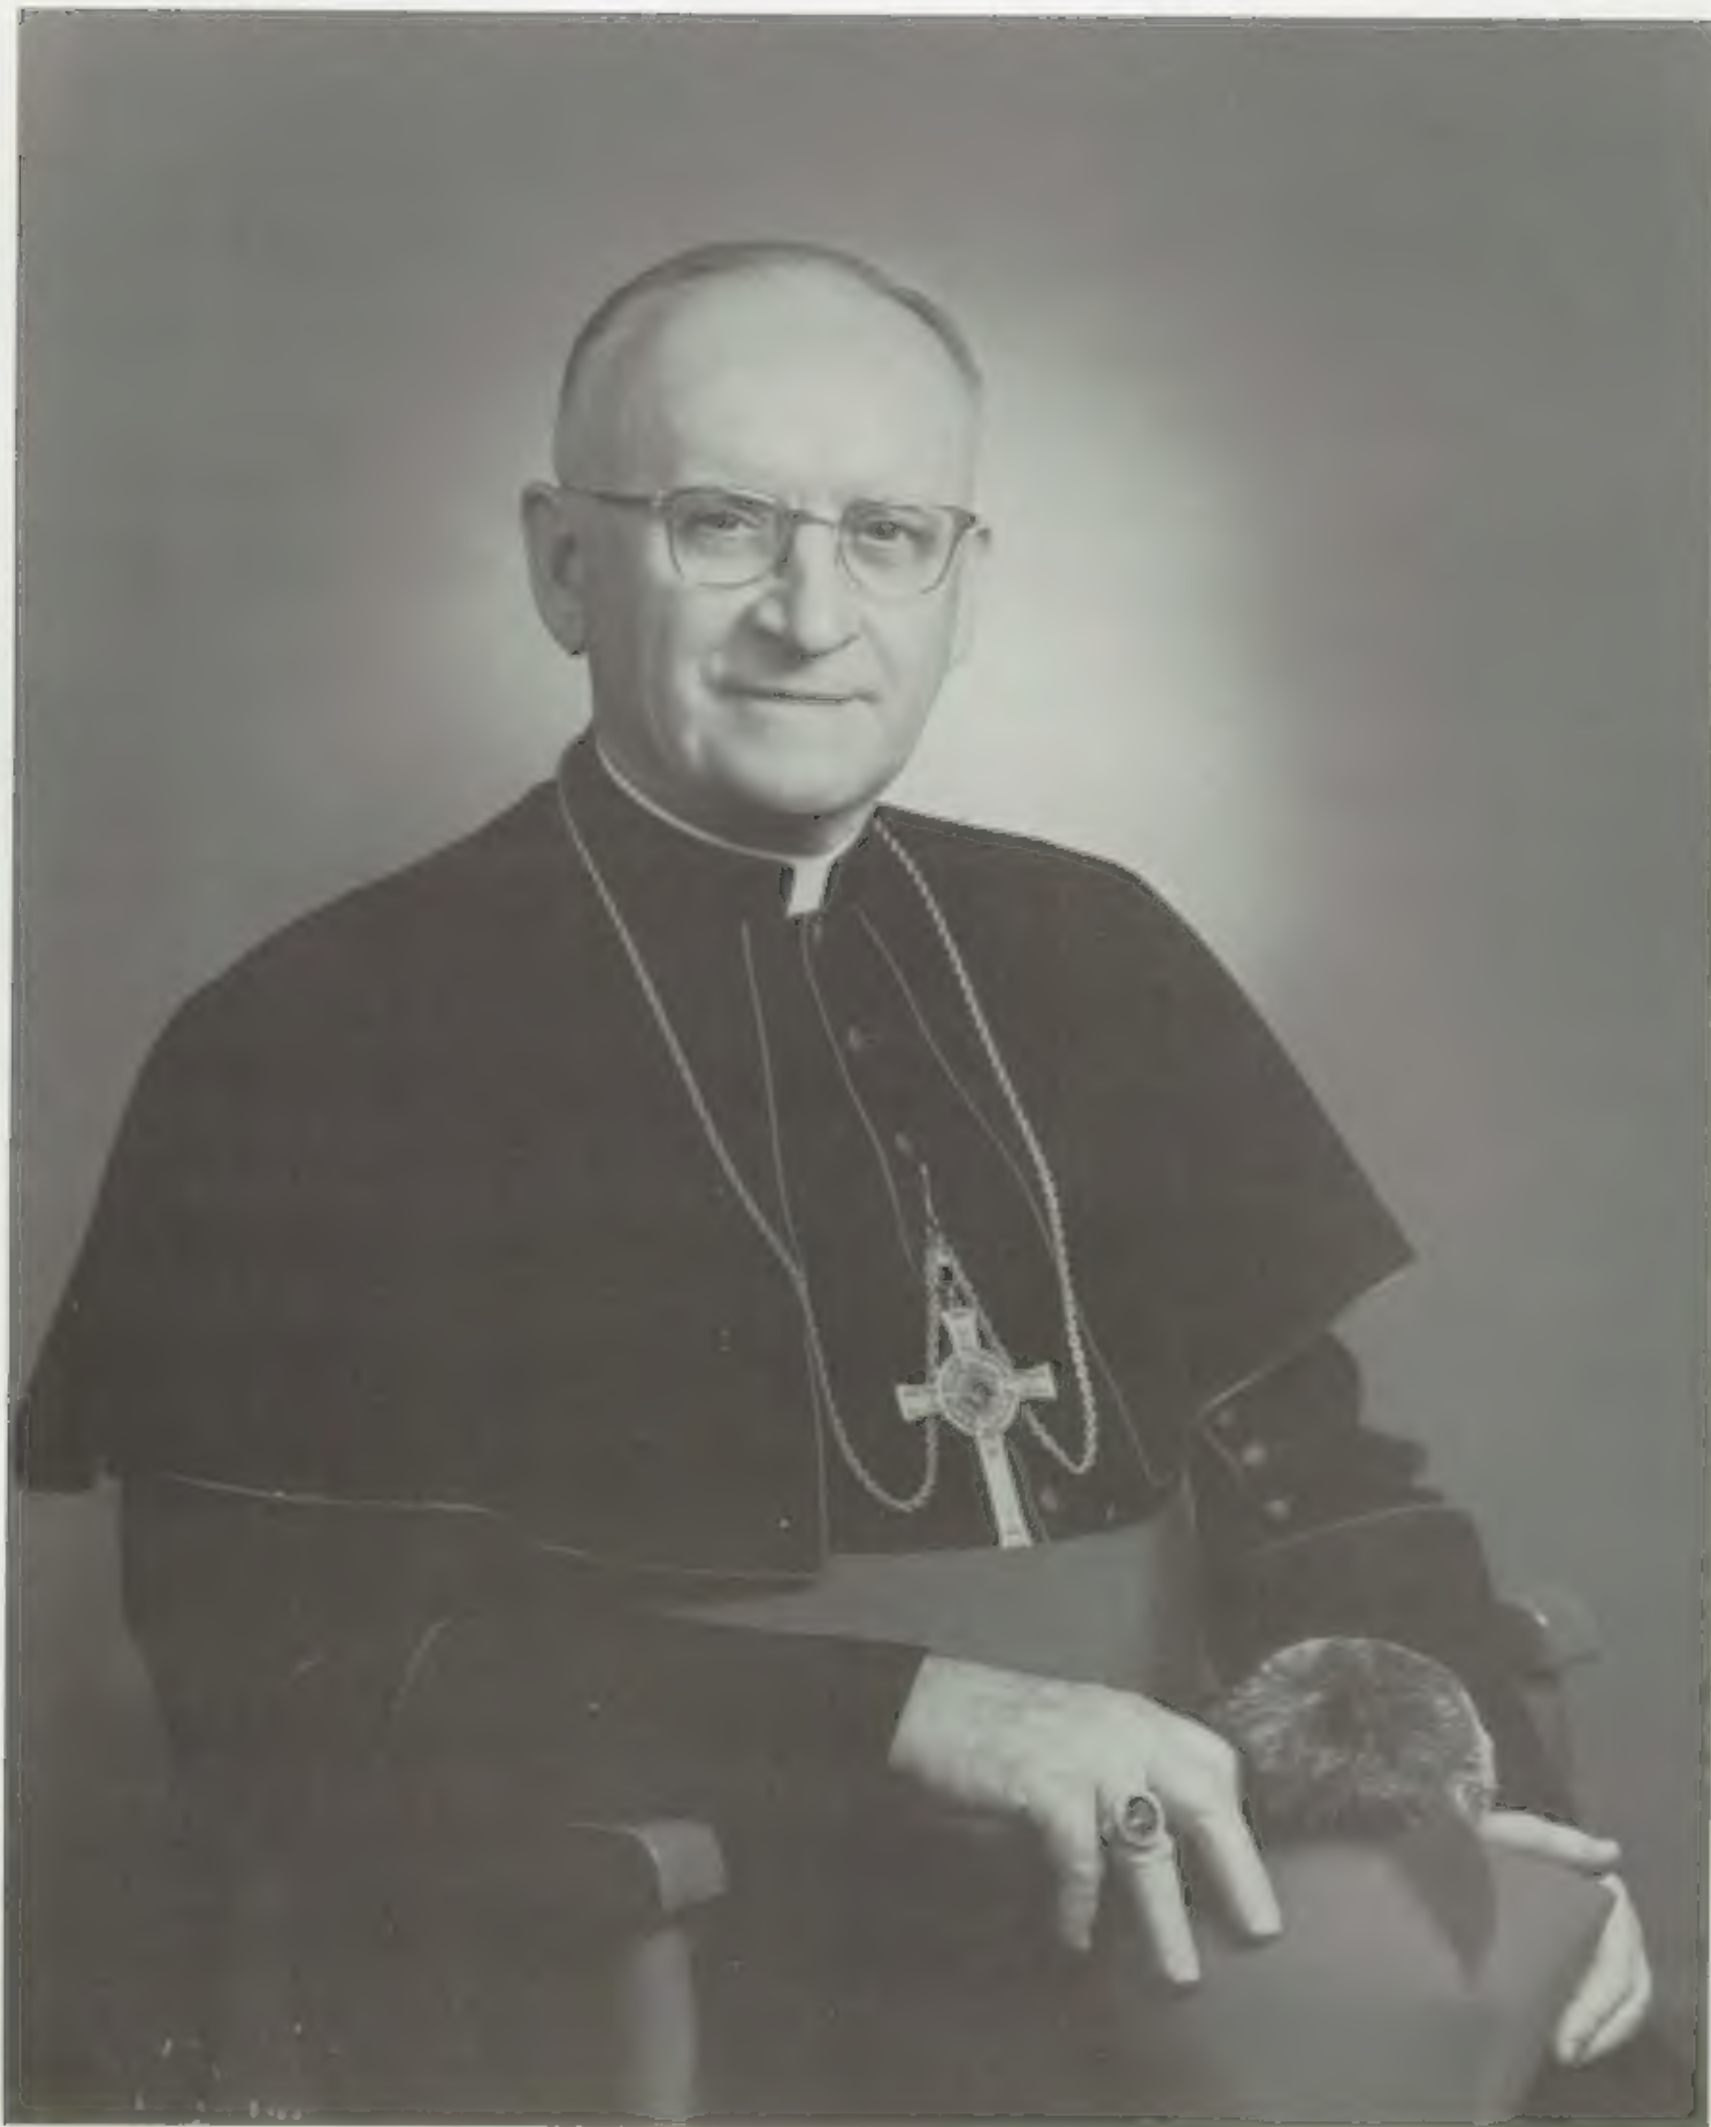

In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility—I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. . . .

And so, my fellow Americans, ask not what your country can do for you: Ask what you can do for your country.

My fellow citizens of the world: Ask not what America will do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man.

We, the first students of John F. Kennedy High School, wish to proclaim our pledge. We accept with eager hands the torch that makes us our brother's keeper. We promise to carry on the work that could not be completed by our beloved John F. Kennedy. We are grateful that God has given us the gift of freedom and the abundance of our Land. We accept these not as gifts to hoard, but as treasures to share.

We dedicate our Yearbook to the memory of President Kennedy. We pledge ourselves and our school to God, to the welfare of our Nation, and to all Mankind. We pray for the strength to carry through these pledges to their fullest extent.

Archbishop John J. Carberry

We felt that a school named John F. Kennedy should dedicate the first Yearbook to his memory. But the three outstanding men on these two pages are next in our thoughts. Our present Archbishop, The Most Reverend John J. Carberry, has carried through with thoroughness the actual beginning of our school. Cardinal Ritter is remembered with gratitude for giving our school his blessing and getting plans under way for it. And Monsignor Curtin, Our Superintendent of Schools, has added the expertise needed to assure us of a strong scholastic beginning. We are grateful to all three.

Joseph Cardinal Ritter
R.I.P.

Msgr. James T. Curtin, Supt.

THE "PROFILES" STAFF HAS CHOSEN AS THE THEME OF THIS BOOK AND THE YEAR:

YOUTH AND POWER

JOHN F. KENNEDY WAS THE YOUNGEST OF THE
PRESIDENTS OF OUR COUNTRY. HIS YOUTH DID NOT DIMINISH HIS POWER -- IT ENHANCED IT.

THE PAGES OF THIS YEARBOOK DEPICT MANY OF THE MILLIONS OF EXPERIENCES FORMING
US DURING OUR HIGH SCHOOL YEARS. WE DO
HOPE TO ATTAIN TRUE POWER EVEN IN OUR YOUTH. THE FUTURE OF GOD'S WORLD AND OUR WORLD DEMAND IT.

ACTIVITIES

CELEBRITY ON CAMPUS

ANN HOLLOWAY

On November 8, 1968, Miss Ann Holloway was introduced to J.F.K. students. As a 5'1", long blond hair and very modly dressed young actress, she publicized her first American movie with Cliff Richards. Steven B. Stevens, one of K&OK's D.J.'s, was also on hand for the event. Miss Holloway proved a "smashing" success as she was mobbed for autographs at the end of the assembly.

ART SHOW

UP WITH PEOPLE!

On March 21 a cast of 45 singers exploded on our stage with their UP WITH PEOPLE show. The cast is the oldest and largest in the St. Louis area and is called Sing Out St. Louis. With their swinging rhythms and contagious enthusiasm these kids are doing more than just a bit to help build a solid and dependable bridge across the generation gap that plagues us. They have a way of telling us what adults try to tell us, but they do it with our own language — music with a beat! It was kind of neat to listen to songs with a positive and optimistic outlook for a change.

Stictly For Fun!

Pantomiming is one of the ways students learn self-expression in Speech classes. Along with being educational it was so much fun that the students decided to put on a show on March 28, 1969. It was almost a full house. Both performers and audience had a great time.

ORGANIZATIONS

In October the election of Student Council Officers and Representatives brought us student participation in the governing of our school.

The Officers and Representatives have met regularly and have shown enthusiasm and cheerfulness in their work for us. They are now building traditions we will be proud of as we advance year by year to the status of a full senior high school.

They have been grateful to Father Richard Neumann for his willingness to give his time so generously as the Moderator of the Council.

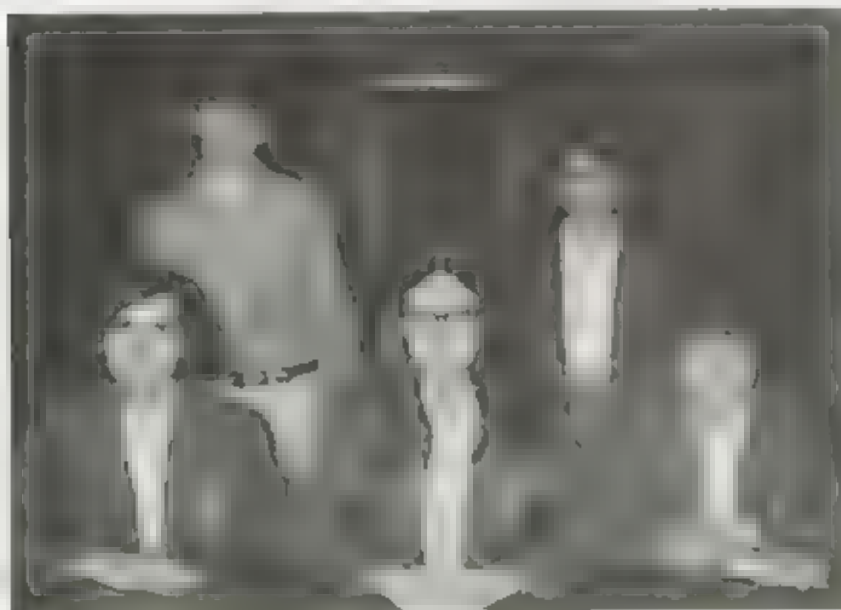

STUDENT COUNCIL

Representatives (above) are T. Hopper, H. Witt, M. Krieger, F. Campbell, M. Kordsmeier, M. Grace, L. Deutschmann, and J. Schultz. Alternates (below) are C. Bischof, M. Zarvos, K. O'Hara, B. Krebs, and C. Tiernan.

Our Presidents are Jim Whitecotton and Denny Tiernan. The Executive Secretaries are Jean Fleming and Karen Roewe. Fr. Neumann is Moderator.

LIBRARY AIDES

Our newspaper, THE TORCH, has introduced the staff to the skills of Journalism and has kept us informed on the many activities and sports events. It has also provided a forum for the opinions of the students themselves. During the first year THE TORCH has had three issues, and it has been the favorite reading of our students.

GLEE CLUB

The GLEE CLUB is under the direction of Miss Burkhart. Students gained experience early in the year at the public performances before the Talent Show and in the special Christmas Program for the students. They were grateful for this Glee Club training when auditions for the musical came in Feb.

Glee Club Officers are: Pam Borgerding, President; Connie Burns, Librarian; Dianne Gatti, Secretary.

The DRAMA CLUB under the direction of Father Zinzer, Miss Burkhart, and Mrs. Cuba put on a great Talent Show this year. Just think of what's to come.

IN CONGRESS July 4, 1776
The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, —

That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, in such a case, dictates that慎重 should be exercised; and that no step should be taken which is likely to be followed by the dissolution of the Society. We have accordingly

The generation gap

On St. Pat's Day there was the creaking of many bones and the sound of grunts and groans as the older generation tried to close the generation gap. The J.F.K. boys generously allowed the faculty and the assorted helpers win in basketball. The girls were not quite so kind.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

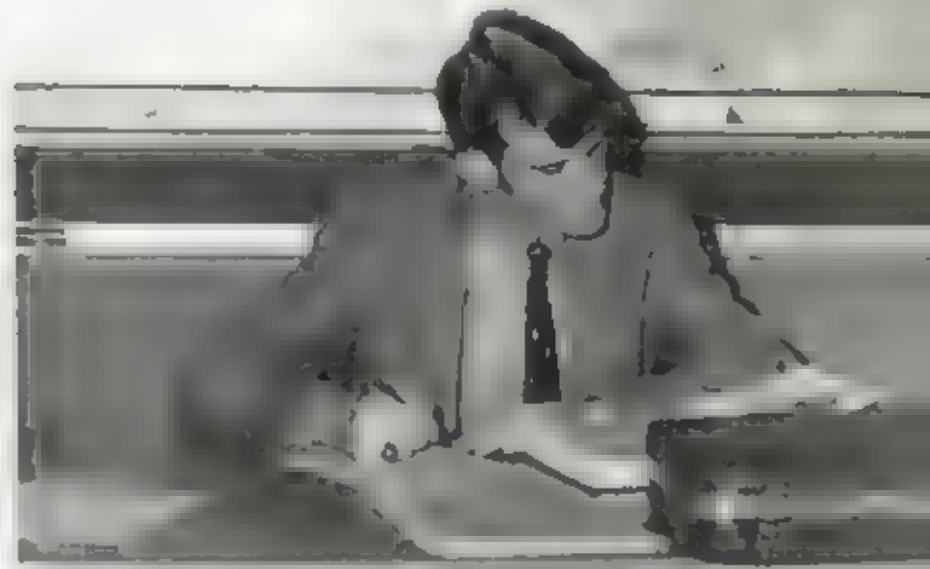

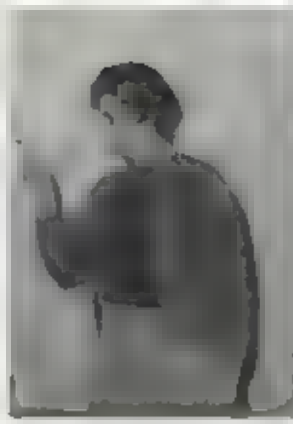

Several months before our school opened, Father George Hendel and Sister Mary Magdalen were already working for us. Sister Mary Magdalen was still at Evansville teaching at Memorial High School. Father Hendel had opened a temporary office for J.P.K. at Prep Seminary North in Florissant. They traveled back and forth several times conferring, interviewing teachers, registering students and taking care of thousands of other things needed to open the greatest school in the Midwest.

Father Hendel also teaches a Speech Class and Sister Mary Magdalen takes 2 periods out of each day to teach Algebra.
